- These score equivalences are only valid for Compulsory courses. Equivalency application for elective courses cannot be made.
- Students are required to apply with the original exam certificate to School of Foreign Languages Register's Office. Certificates of YDS, TOEFL, and IELTS should be taken at most three years before the date of application.
- If students have only one score which has equivalence, they will be exempt from more than one compulsory course with the Letter Grade demonstrated in the tables above for each course.
- Students who are exempt from a course with an exam certificate will not be able to take the exemption exam to increase their grades.

- Students who want to increase the grade they take with the equivalent certificate have to enroll in the course.
